2. Only one block course may be taken in any 12 month period. These are intended as introductory courses only. Membership fees apply pro rata at normal rates if flying is not completed within the period. (See Member's price list)
3. All trial lessons come with three or six months' temporary membership (depending on the type of package purchased). Continuation of the membership during this period is conditional on the member participating in club activities at least once in every four weeks.
